Visiting our website

We do not collect personal information from our visitors other than what is supplied to us on a voluntary basis. Public Safety Training & Response Group analyses our website logs to constantly improve the value of the content available on our website. Information in our website logs is not personally identifiable and we make no attempt to link that information with the individuals that browse our site.

Cookies

When you visit our website, we may collect and store your computer's assigned IP address, the date and time of your visit, the information accessed and the referring page. We may also collect other non-identifying data for statistical purposes. This information is not linked to your personal information unless required by law.

Like many websites, our website may use 'cookies' from time to time. Cookies are small text files that the website transfers to your computer through your web browser to enable the website's systems to recognise your computer. Cookies may also be used to record non-personal information such as the date, time or duration of your visit, or the pages accessed, for website administration, statistical and maintenance purposes. Any such information will be aggregated and not linked to particular individuals unless required by law.

You have the ability to accept or decline cookies by modifying the settings in your browser. Please note that some parts of the website may not function fully for users that disallow cookies.
